

Artistic License

1. JULIA MONIEWSKI, based in Switzerland, portrays the diversity of human expression, inner psyche gathered by her personal stories. Pictured is acrylic with charcoal on canvas "Imbalance" 70 x 50 cm. Visit julia.moniewski.com or follow @juliamoniewski on IG.

2. HALEY MUNO is an American abstract artist from Chicago, Illinois. She utilises a variety of media in her paintings to create unique textures, shapes, and bold colours. Creating abstract art is a fulfilling and energising process that recaptures that playful, child-like fascination with the world. Find her work at haleymunoart.com and on IG @haleymunoart

3. VICTORIA-RIZA, a Filipina-American artist, illustrator and editorial director of The Riza, specialises in fashion and portraiture. Layering watercolour, gouache, pencils, and ink, her works present the beauty of diversity. Often paired with storytelling, the two mediums accentuate the value of representation within the broader context of a love of art, fashion and culture. Submit inquiries for editorial work or hire for events at victoriariza.com and follow @victoria_riza on IG.

4. Nina Maric is a freelance artist behind CHIC ON PAPER ILLUSTRATION, creating beautiful hand-drawn art to instantly bring glamour to your home or brand. Capture your special moments with elegant custom illustrations your loved ones will treasure for a lifetime. Visit chiconpaper.com and follow @chiconpaper on IG.

5. MATT MARKUM is an abstract painter living in Los Angeles, CA. He uses a combination of paper mache, splatter paint, and highly textured brush strokes to create chaotic and surreal works of art. For all inquiries visit mattmarkumart.com and follow @mattmarkumart on IG.

6. OSCAR SOTO LOZANO is a visual artist. His work begins with the study of global context and the result is an abstract deconstruction of landscapes, focused on technology, geometry and colour variations. Visit oscarlozano.net and follow @oscarlozanostudio on IG.

7. MICHELLE WEDDLE depicts abstract expressions of nature, emphasising movement and energy using colour, line and form. Her illusions of transparency and textured surfaces portray a landscape's resilient energy, as it harmonises with its surroundings, despite the vigorous forces imposed upon it. Visit michelleweddle.com and follow @michelleweddle on IG.

8. The digital art gallery, SKULPTA, presents an exciting and dynamic collection of Canvas Art, available in a range of sizes and framing options to suit every space. Their collection of bold, contemporary and iconic wall decor is sure to make a powerful and fun statement in your home. Shop online at skulpta.co.uk and follow @skulpta_shop on IG.

9. BIANCA PRETTAU is a Brussels-based painter who currently focuses on semi-abstract iconic cityscapes using alternative contemporary painting methods and tools. Her lately ongoing URBAN collection [acrylics on canvas] is increasingly collected worldwide; for more information visit prettaugallery.net

10. HEATHER ECK is a contemporary painter with a love for creating fine art that reveals a sense of tranquility to promote healing and wellness for both the observer and herself. Heather's mission is to share her colourful art with people who have a calling to improve their overall wellbeing. To learn more visit heathereck.com and follow @heathereckartist on IG.

11. MEGAN FATHARLY is an experimental British artist, whose combination of printmaking, collage and embossing explores the intricacies of the everyday. Her work is inspired by Matisse and simplicity of line. Her work is held in private collections in North America, Asia and Europe. See her work at madebymegan.bigcartel.com and follow @Printcessmeg on IG.

12. EDUARDO LOPEZ is a South Florida-based Venezuelan artist who creates powerful and dynamic abstract paintings incorporating acrylic, enamel, charcoal and Sumi ink. You can sense his spontaneous technique on his strokes. He relies on social media and online galleries to promote his art. See his work at alchymiarts.com or follow @alchymiarts on IG.

13. NIX ROWAN, a London based artist, loves to capture the wonder of animals in watercolour. Ranging from individual animal prints to personalised names, she also takes portrait commissions for beloved pets. Discover more at nixrowan.com and follow @nix.rowan on IG.

14. The art of JOYCE WELLMAN is rooted both in the visionary and in the organic. An abstraction artist by choice, her works are full of iconic imagery. Signifiers, numbers, and runes emerge from swirls of modulated pigment recalling distant cosmologies, clandestine language, cryptic messages, secrets and dreams. Visit joycewellman.com/index.shtml to see more and contact artworks@joycewellman.com

